

APG-QIC Consortium reaches financial close acquiring interest in Brussels Airport

6 December 2019

After receiving all necessary regulatory approvals from the Belgian regulator and relevant anti-trust authorities, the APG-QIC jointly led consortium reached financial close and secured a 36% stake in Brussels Airport from funds managed by Macquarie.¹

The APG-QIC jointly led consortium further comprises of Swiss Life Asset Managers and PMV, whereby PMV was welcomed by the consortium as a new minority investor after the closing date.

Brussels Airport – Belgium’s largest airport – is a free-hold perpetual airport located in the political capital of Europe, host to EU and NATO headquarters. It is a strong performing gateway airport, supported by a transparent and stable regulatory regime.
