

Swiss Life Asset Managers sells Amprion stake to RWE

22 June 2026

Swiss Life Asset Managers, acting on behalf of selected investment vehicles, has signed an agreement to sell its indirect stake in the German transmission system operator Amprion to RWE AG. The transaction marks the successful realisation of a long-standing infrastructure investment.

Swiss Life Asset Managers, acting on behalf of selected investment vehicles, has signed an agreement to sell its indirect stake in the German transmission system operator Amprion to RWE AG. Completion of the transaction remains subject to regulatory approvals.

The investment in Amprion is among the most significant holdings within Swiss Life Asset Managers' infrastructure platform and also marked its first commitment in this asset class in 2011. The transaction now agreed fully realises the value appreciation achieved by the investment, in the interests of the investors.

“The stake in Amprion was a key investment for the establishment and development of our infrastructure platform. After some 15 years, the time has come to transfer the holding into new hands. This decision underscores our disciplined portfolio management and is in line with the ongoing development of our infrastructure equity investment strategy, with a clear focus on control and co-control positions,” says Christoph Manser, Head Infrastructure Equity International, Swiss Life Asset Managers.

“This transaction underscores our ability to create and realise value across the entire investment cycle. The capital released will be deployed selectively into new attractive opportunities in our target markets,” says Christoph Gisler, Head Infrastructure Equity, Swiss Life Asset Managers.
